TO BE WOWED!

What do you get when parents can order all school supplies faster than it takes to load the kids in the car...when student backpacks are full of the cool and quality products they love...and when teachers know their class is fully prepared to learn on the first day of class?

EduKit has been creating 100% awesome back to school experiences for over 25 years. Thousands of parents across the nation trust us to deliver quality, convenience, and a whole lot of happy year after year.

Here are just a few things our customers say they love about EduKit:

- High quality products to fit every budget
- The program is easy to launch and manage
- Fun marketing materials provided
- Kits arrived labeled how you want
- Flexible ordering options—even through summer
- Multiple (and sturdy!) packaging options
- Guaranteed delivery by the first day of school

YOU GET HAPPY!

Googly eyes? Glitter? Pinto Beans?

Edukits are built from teacher supply lists for any grade and with all supplies imaginable.
